Do We Need Project Management?

Misconception

- Only for construction and IT businesses
- Only needed by project managers

Fact

- All businesses need project management
- Everybody needs project management skills at some level

Magic Wand

Misconception

Project management is a “Magic Wand” that will fix everything and save the organization.

Fact

Project management can be a “Magic Wand” if done correctly, in a mature environment, with the correct mindset and support.

Who is the Project Manager?

The project manager is the person who is ultimately responsible for the project success or failure.

Misconception

The project manager is “Mr. Do it All” or “Mr. Fix it All”

Fact

The project manager leads the project team to success.
